CREDENTIALS

Seating at Market Square Arena's press tables is restricted to accredited working media representatives. Non-working media will be seated in reserved seat areas when seats are available. Single game credentials must be requested no later than noon the day before the game (Friday noon for Sunday games). Requests may be made in writing to Dale Ratermann, Media Relations Department, Indiana Pacers, 300 E. Market St., Indianapolis, Indiana 46204 or by calling the Pacers' Media Relations office at (317) 263-2100. Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, media room and home and visiting lockerrooms. Those regularly assigned to the Pacers will be seated at courtside. Those requesting single game credentials will be seated on a first-come first-served basis. Pre-arranged credentials may be picked up before the game at the media gate. MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING PACERS' SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING.

MEDIA GATE — The media gate is located on the third floor level, northwest entrance of MSA (300 East Market Street). Only media members who hold Indiana Pacers or NBA media credentials will be admitted through this entrance.

MEDIA ROOM

Located on the northeast corner of MSA's floor level (3rd floor). The room opens 1½ hours before each game and again at halftime and following the game. We must limit media room usage to members of the media only when valid Pacers media passes are presented. It is impossible to accommodate family members, friends, guests or others. The professional intent of the room is to provide a meeting and working place for the media and game personnel. Any abuse of the media room and/or media privileges will cause forfeiture of your media pass.

SERVICES

Complete statistics along with pre-game press notes, line-ups, information regarding injuries, and other pertinent facts will be furnished by the Pacers' Media Relations Department. Play-by-play and halftime box scores will be delivered directly to the press table and complete final boxes, fourth quarter play-by-plays and coaches' quotes will be available immediately following the game in the media room. FAX — The Indiana Pacers will provide one fax machine for use in the media room.

PRESS ROW

Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere at press row. Smoking is prohibited on press row.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed space on the floor and their photo credentials must be worn prominently at all times. Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, media room and the designated photographer areas on the MSA floor. Only television photographers doing post-game interviews will have access to locker-room areas. Photographers are allowed only within the designated photographers' area at each end of the court. Spaces are allotted on a first-come first-served basis. Special instructions for photographers can be found on the photo pass.

LOCKERROOMS

Both the Pacers' and visitor's lockerrooms will be open up to 45 minutes before game time and 10 minutes after the game.

Market Square Arena

Market Square Arena, built by the city of Indianapolis and completed in 1974, is one of the premier sports and entertainment showplaces in the midwest.

The building was designed by Kennedy, Brown and Associates and constructed by Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. Ground breaking ceremonies were held Oct. 20, 1971, and Sept. 15, 1974, the building was officially opened. The Pacers fell to San Antonio, 129-121, in double overtime in their first appearance in the building on Oct. 18, 1974.

Five nights later, Oct. 23, 1974, saw Indiana take its first victory in its "new" home as the Pacers dumped the Spirits of St. Louis, 122-107.

Market Square Arena highlights include the 1980 NCAA basketball semifinals and finals; the 1978 and 1979 NCAA basketball Mid-East Regionals; NBA's All-Star Saturday in 1985; the annual Indiana state high school basketball and wrestling championships; Elvis Presley's last concert on June 26, 1977; 1982 National Sports Festival; and 1987 Pan American Games basketball competition.

Site of countless sports and spectator events including circuses, rodeos, ice shows, major concerts, tennis and hockey, MSA has a seating capacity for concerts of 18,250; the same for boxing; 16,530 for basketball and 16,000 for hockey. All seats in the circular arena are free from posts and other obstructions of view. Prior to the 1984-85 NBA season, MSA underwent major reconstruction to include the most modern in handicap provisions and in 1988 a new animated color scoreboard and video replay screens were added.

The finest in dining is provided at Market Square Gardens restaurant, located on the seventh level on the west side of the building.

Sports In Indianapolis

McGUIRE STUDIO

"Indianapolis has never met a sport it didn't like."—TV Guide
"Now, 'India-No-Place' is Sportsville, U.S.A."—Business Week
". . . the place looks like a mini-Olympic site."—The Sporting News
". . . Indianapolis has become a state-of-the-art sports city."—Philadelphia Inquirer
". . . Indianapolis remains . . . the hottest sports locale in the country."—Sports Travel

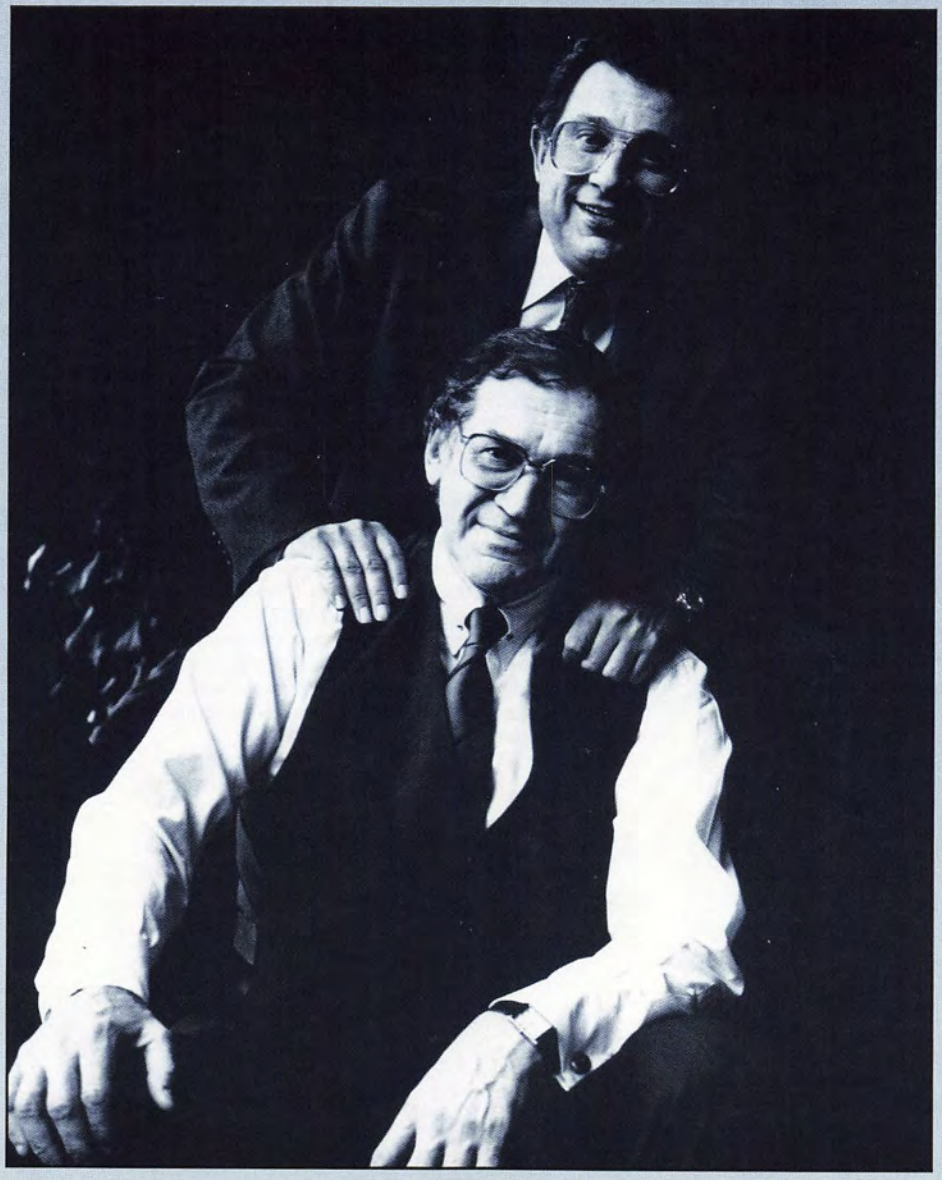
These accolades represent what Indianapolis city leaders dreamed of achieving. In the late 1960s and early 1970s, after deliberately choosing to use sports as an economic and community development tool, the city began building sports facilities and executing marketing strategies to attract top sporting events.

Besides attracting fans and tourists, the publicity surrounding major athletic events, including the Indiana Pacers, results in national and international name recognition for Indianapolis. The events provide opportunities to showcase the city—not only as a sports center, but also as a tourist destination, a business destination, and a good place in which to live, work, and invest.

So far, Indianapolis has hosted 230 national and international events, built more than $165 million worth of facilities, and attracted numerous sports organizations.

Indianapolis has been the site of several major sporting events: the 1987 Pan American Games, the 1982 U.S. Olympic Festival, the Indianapolis 500-Mile Race, the NCAA Final Four basketball tournament in 1980, 1991 and 1997, the PGA Golf Championship in 1991, the World Indoor Track & Field Championships in 1989, the World Gymnastics Championships in 1991 and the AAU James E. Sullivan Memorial Award Dinner every year.

Front Office



Melvin Simon

Owner

Born October 21, 1926, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Melvin Simon is Chairman of the Board and co-founder of the Indianapolis-based real estate development and management company that bears his name, Melvin Simon & Associates, Inc. (Simon).

Prior to creating the company in 1960 in Indianapolis with brothers Herbert and Fred, Mr. Simon worked as a leasing representative with the Albert Frankel Company, an Indianapolis developer of strip shopping centers.

Mr. Simon came to Indiana while serving in the U.S. Army when a transfer brought him to Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indianapolis.

He attended the Bronx High School of Science and the City College of New York where he earned a B.S. degree in accounting.

After developing small retail community plazas in the early 1960s, the company began developing regional shopping malls and mixed-use centers. Today, the Simon company is the second largest manager and fourth largest developer of shopping centers in the nation. The Simon portfolio includes 171 centers in 35 states.

One of Mr. Simon's personal endeavors was motion picture production in Hollywood in the mid-1970s. Melvin Simon Productions appeared on more than two-dozen films, including, "My Bodyguard," "The Stunt Man," and "Love at First Bite."

Mr. Simon's diversified business interests beyond real estate includes co-ownership with brother Herbert of an NBA franchise, the Indiana Pacers.

A firm supporter of professional and community groups, Mr. Simon is a Trustee of the Urban Land Institute (ULI) and a Trustee of the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC). He holds board memberships on numerous community and civic groups and organizations, and has received many awards and honors for his involvement.

Together, Mr. Simon and wife Bren have five children.

Herbert Simon

Owner

Born October 23, 1934, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Herbert Simon is President and co-founder of the Indianapolis-based real estate development and management company, Melvin Simon & Associates, Inc. (Simon).

Prior to creating the Simon company with his brothers Melvin and Fred in Indianapolis in 1960, Mr. Simon attended the City College of New York where he earned a B.S. degree in business.

Donnie Walsh

President

Since Donnie Walsh was named general manager of the Indiana Pacers in April, 1986, it has been a steady stream of activity for the Pacers on and off the court. And every indicator points toward continued improvement in every aspect of the Pacers' organization with sights set for the goal of building a world championship team. Consider these accomplishments:

- In the last five seasons the Pacers have averaged 38 victories a season, up from 25 wins a year in the five previous years. And they have qualified for the playoffs three times during the period.
- Attendance in Market Square Arena has reached all-time highs, with the home averages for each of the last five seasons among the franchise's top six averages.
- In 1988 Walsh was named president of the Indiana Pacers Basketball Corporation, which not only runs the Pacers, but directs the management of Market Square Arena.

Walsh, an assistant coach for the Pacers for two years before being named G.M., got into coaching following a highly successful basketball playing career at the University of North Carolina. He played three years (1958-61) under Frank McGuire (who guided the Tar Heels to the 1957 NCAA title) and his senior season for then first-year head coach Dean Smith.

Upon graduating from UNC, Walsh attended the North Carolina Law School where he was the associate editor of the Law Review. He had opportunities to join then former Vice-President Richard Nixon's New York law firm and the U.S. Justice Department's Honors Program, but he turned them down to take a graduate assistant coaching position under Smith at North Carolina.

A year later, Walsh joined McGuire at the University of South Carolina as associate head coach. He spent 12 years there before deciding to enter law school. He passed the Bar Exam in 1977 and was about to enter private practice when Denver Nuggets coach Larry Brown, Walsh's running mate at guard at UNC, convinced him to join the Nuggets' staff. After serving as an assistant coach for a year and a half, he was suddenly thrust into the head coaching spot following Brown's resignation in February, 1979. He guided the Nuggets to a 19-10 record in the final two months of that season and wound up with a 60-82 record in two years as head coach.

Following his stay with Denver, Walsh entered private business. He joined the Pacers as an assistant coach to George Irvine after Irvine was named head coach in the summer of 1984.

Walsh is a member of the prestigious U.S. Olympic Games committee for men's basketball which selected the U.S. team and coaching staff. He also serves on the boards of various charitable organizations in the Indianapolis area.

Walsh is a native of New York City. He and his wife, Judy, have five children and live in Indianapolis.

George Irvine

Vice President
Basketball Operations

As Vice President of Basketball Operations, George Irvine oversees the administrative side of the team, from budgets to scouting. He specializes in the scouting of college players as potential draft picks, current NBA players and anybody else who can play the game, from the CBA to Europe to AAU leagues.

Irvine has been the Pacers' head coach on two occasions (1984-86 and on an interim basis for part of 1988-89), compiling a record of 54-130. He joined the Pacers' organization in 1980 and spent three seasons as an assistant coach to Jack McKinney. In 1983 he became responsible for the Pacer draft efforts as the vice-president/director of basketball operations.

A native of Seattle, Irvine is a 1970 graduate of the University of Washington. A third-round draft pick of the Virginia Squires in 1970, Irvine played five seasons as a guard/forward for the American Basketball Association club and another season with the Denver Nuggets before a knee injury forced his retirement.

He spent three seasons (1977-80) as a Nuggets assistant coach under Larry Brown and current Pacer President Donnie Walsh.

George is the father of two sons, Toby and Jaime, and lives in Carmel.

Greg Jamison

Vice President
Business Operations

Overseeing the business side of the Pacers' front office for the fifth year is Greg Jamison. He is responsible for the seven departments that run the day to day activities of the club.

Prior to joining the Pacers, Jamison spent seven years with the Dallas Mavericks as director of marketing and advertising. He was instrumental in propelling the Mavericks from an expansion team to one of the most respected front offices in the NBA.

Before joining the Mavericks, Jamison worked for two years as the marketing director of Athletes-In-Action and five years in education and education administration.

A native of Idaho, he received his bachelor's degree from Northwest Nazarene College and a master's from Colorado State University. Jamison is involved with many Indianapolis charities, most notably the Indiana Youthlinks, cystic fibrosis and Red Ribbon anti-drug campaign.

He and his wife, Vicki, have two children and live in Carmel.

Pacer Announcers

Mark Boyle
Radio Play-By-Play

Mark Boyle is in his fourth season as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Pacers on WNDE and an extensive network. He also is the host of a nightly sports talk show on WNDE.

Boyle came to the Pacers from KMOX in St. Louis and WFAN radio in New York, arguably the two best sports stations in the country. He did play-by-play for the Minnesota North Stars of the NHL, the Minnesota Strikers of the MISL, NCAA football and basketball for the University of Minnesota and four other colleges and a variety of high school state championships.

Originally from Minneapolis, Boyle also has worked for stations in Minneapolis (KSTP), St. Cloud, Minn. (WJON), Dubuque, Iowa (KDTH), Detroit Lakes, Minn. (KDLM) and Miles City, Mont. (KATL).

Jerry Baker
TV Play-By-Play

Jerry Baker returns for the second year in his second stint with the Pacers as the television play-by-play announcer.

Baker began doing radio broadcasts for the Pacers in their inaugural ABA season in 1967. After five seasons on radio, he switched to TV play-by-play for the Pacers, a position he held until 1977. Since that time Baker was a popular disc jockey for WIBC radio in Indianapolis as well as the voice of the Indiana high school basketball state championship games.

A native of Sullivan, Ind., Baker graduated from Indiana State University in 1971.

Bob Leonard
TV Analyst

Bob "Slick" Leonard brings a varied basketball knowledge and an extensive background of the Pacers' franchise to every Pacer telecast.

He was head coach of the Pacers for 11 years, winning 529 games and three ABA championships. He was general manager of the Pacers from 1976-80. He was a member of the Indiana University 1953 NCAA championship team. And he played for seven years in the NBA for the Lakers and Chicago, finishing among the league leaders in assists.

Leonard, a native of Terre Haute, Ind., lives in Carmel and is an investment counselor.

Clark Kellogg
TV Analyst

Clark Kellogg, a familiar name in the Pacers' record book, is now a familiar name on Pacer broadcasts. In his fifth season, Kellogg will be an analyst on Pacer telecasts.

He was a first-round draft pick of the Pacers in 1982 and played for five seasons before chronic knee injuries forced him to retire. He averaged 18.9 points and 9.6 rebounds per game in his NBA career.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Kellogg attended Ohio State University where he was the MVP in the Big Ten Conference in 1982. He is very active in many Indianapolis-area charities and civic organizations, most notably the Special Olympics. He also does a full schedule of college games for ESPN.

Brian Hammons
TV Host

In his fourth season as the studio host for Pacer games is Brian Hammons. He is a native Hoosier who is familiar to all TV viewers in Indianapolis as the new sports director at WXIN-TV.

Hammons' TV career began when he was just a freshman at Butler University. During his four years in school, he was a sports reporter and then moved to an anchor position for WRTV-TV after his graduation from Butler in 1983. He also has extensive experience covering auto racing for ESPN, ABC, NBC and Prime Sports Network.

Coaches

Bob Hill

Head Coach

On Dec. 20, 1990, Bob Hill was named head coach of the Indiana Pacers. Taking over as head coach in mid-season is nothing new to Hill.

He was named head coach of the New York Knicks 16 games into the 1986-87 NBA season and was head coach of the Topeka Sizzlers for the final 17 games of the 1987-88 CBA season.

But his most impressive stint in a relief role came with the Pacers. Taking over for Dick Versace when Indiana was 9-16, the Pacers responded by finishing 32-25 under Hill, including a 22-14 record after the NBA all-star break, the third best record in the Eastern Conference.

Among the Pacers' accomplishments in Hill's brief tenure were: the most home wins (29) in the club's NBA history, the first time the club has had a .500 or better record in three and four consecutive months, and the club's second straight post-season appearance, a Pacer first.

Hill joined the Pacers' staff as an assistant coach at the start of the 1989-90 season. Prior to joining the Pacers, Hill was the head coach of Vitrus Knorr in Bologna, Italy. His team won the Cup of Italy and advanced to the Final Four of the Italian League championship.

In 1987-88 Hill was a scout for the NBA's Charlotte Hornets, a TV analyst for the New Jersey Nets, as well as the interim head coach for Topeka in the CBA.

After graduating from Bowling Green State University, Hill played minor league baseball in the San Diego Padres organization. He got his first coaching job as an assistant at Bowling Green in 1971. He moved to the University of Pittsburgh as an assistant coach in 1975 and then on to the University of Kansas in 1978 as an assistant to Ted Owens and later to Larry Brown, current coach of the San Antonio Spurs.

After eight years at Kansas, Hill became an assistant coach with the Knicks under Hubie Brown. After a year and 16 games, he was named head coach and compiled a record of 20-46 the rest of the season.

Hill, a native of Columbus, O., is married and has three children.

Billy Knight

Assistant Coach

When Bob Hill was elevated to head coach of the Pacers in December, 1990, he needed to look no further than the Pacers' front office and record book to find his replacement as an assistant coach.

Billy Knight, an assistant in the community relations department and the holder of practically every offensive record in Pacers' history, was named an assistant coach Dec. 28, 1990.

Knight played in more games (585) and scored more points (10,780) in a Pacer uniform than anyone in history. He is a three-time all-star with a career scoring average of 16.9 points a game. Besides the Pacers, he played for Buffalo, Boston, Kansas City and Sacramento.

A native of Pittsburgh and an all-American at the University of Pittsburgh, Knight now competes as a state ranked tennis player.

He is married and has one daughter

Bob Ociepka

Assistant Coach

Bob Ociepka's first job in coaching was with Dick Versace 20 years ago. The pair reunited with the naming of Ociepka (oh-SEEP-ka) as a Pacers' assistant coach in January, 1989.

Ociepka was hired at Gordon Tech High School in Chicago in 1970 as an assistant coach to Versace. Three years later, Versace was moving on, but Ociepka stayed at Gordon Tech for 15 years. He was head coach there for the final six seasons, compiling a record of 138-37. He was the head coach at York High School in the Chicago area for the past three and a half years.

A native of Chicago, Ociepka graduated from Quincy (Ill.) College in 1970 where he played on the basketball team. He also spent two years as a part-time scout and summer league coach for the Detroit Pistons.

He is married and has one child.

Mel Daniels

Assistant Coach/Scout

Mel Daniels is providing his expertise on inside play as a special coach this season, in addition to scouting duties. The former all-pro and two-time ABA MVP helped lead the Pacers to three ABA titles during his six years as a player with Indiana.

Daniels averaged 19.5 points and 15.9 rebounds per game from 1968-74. He was the ABA Rookie of the Year in '69 and the MVP of the 1971 All-Star game.

A native of Detroit, Daniels was an All-American at the University of New Mexico.

Daniels served as an assistant coach at Indiana State University from 1978-82 and was part of ISU's 33-1 NCAA championship runner-up team in 1978-79. Former Sycamore star Larry Bird credits Daniels with preparing him for the NBA.

Mel, an avid horseman, and his wife, CeCe, live in Indianapolis.

David Craig

Trainer

The veteran among all Pacer employees, trainer David Craig joined the staff in 1970 and has gained a reputation as one of the best trainers in all professional sports.

Craig, 43, is chairman of the National Basketball Trainers Association and was the first president of the Indiana Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of West Lafayette, Ind., Craig learned his trade at Purdue University from "Pinky" Newell, widely regarded as the father of modern-day athletic training.

After honing his skills working summer camps for the NFL's Detroit Lions and Minnesota Vikings, Craig joined the Pacers.

In addition to his duties with the Pacers, he also is president and co-founder of Indianapolis Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine, Inc., which has 80 employees at five locations throughout the city.

Craig is married and has two children. He and his family live in a 150-year old home in rural Indianapolis.

NBA Terminology

Active List

The maximum number of active players is 12; the minimum is 11. At no time shall a team be permitted to dress fewer than eight players for a regular season game or nine for a playoff game. During the off-season and training camp, teams may carry no more than 20 active players.

Injured List

When a player on the Playing Roster is unable, due to injury or illness, to perform his duties, his name may be transferred from the Active List to the Injured List. Any player placed on the Injured List, who is replaced on his team's Active List, must sit out at least five of his team's regular season games before he may be restored to the Active List. No more than three players may be on a team's Injured List at any one time.

Ten-Day Contract

On or after the 55th day following the first game, a team may sign a player to a 10-day contract. This procedure may be used only to replace a player assigned to the Injured List. No player may be signed to more than two 10-day contracts with the same team.

Trading Deadline

No trades are permitted after 9 p.m. (EST) on the 16th Thursday of the regular season (that's Feb. 20 this season). From that point until the end of the regular season, player additions must be made through the waiver procedure or by signing free agents.

Waivers

From August 15 to the end of the regular season, clubs may claim waived players within 48 hours after notice. Players waived at any other time, may be claimed within 10 days. If no team claims the waived player, he becomes a free agent. If more than one team claims a waived player, the one with the lesser record at that time claims the player. The cost for a waived player is $1,000, payable to the League.

Guaranteed Contracts

On the 56th day of the regular season, all player contracts become guaranteed for the remainder of the season.

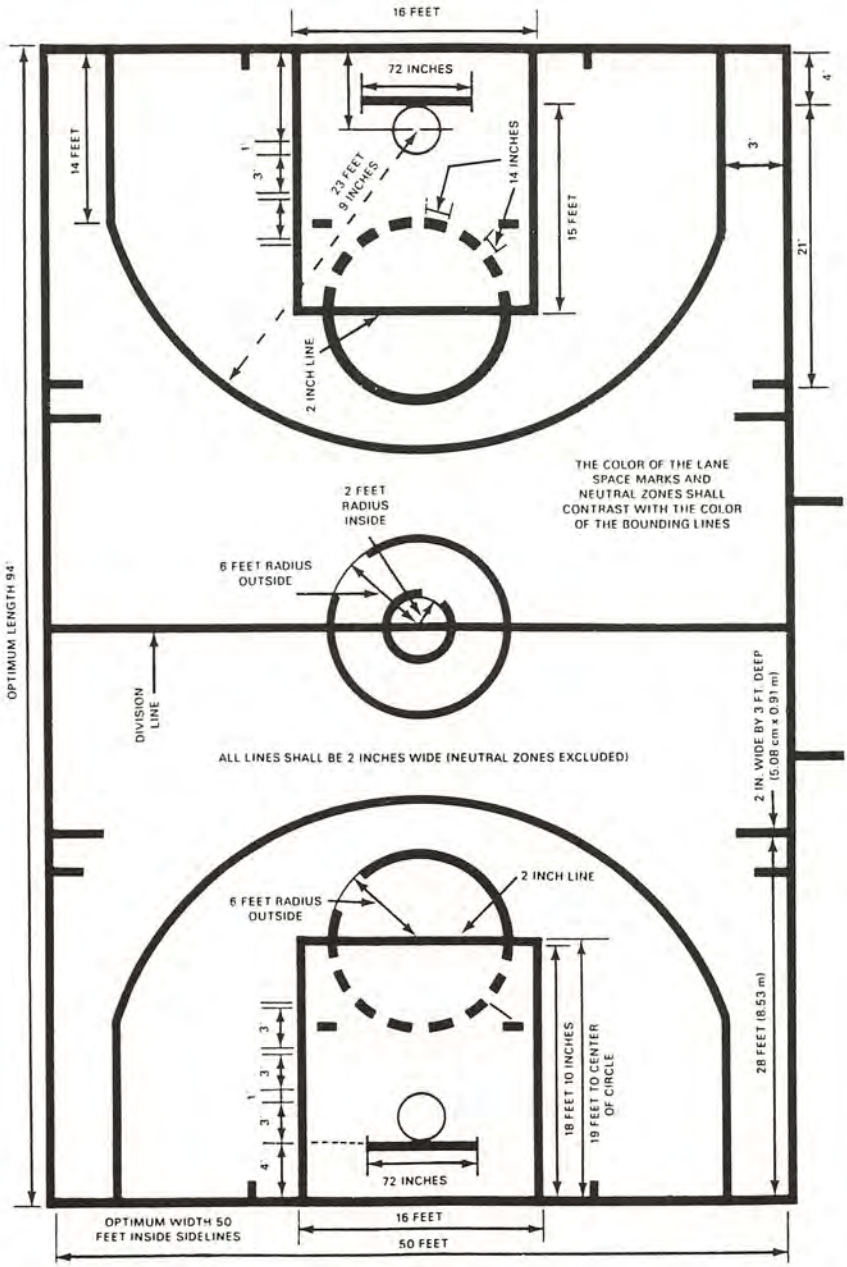
Renunciation of Amateur Eligibility

A person whose high school class has graduated and is at least 17 years old shall become eligible for the College Draft if he renounces his intercollegiate basketball eligibility by written notice to the NBA at least 45 days prior to the draft. Prior to 45 days before the draft, teams may not make direct or indirect contact with players who have eligibility remaining. Teams may contact players without remaining eligibility, but may not discuss compensation.

Salary Cap

The salary cap for the 1991-92 season is $12,500,000 per team. In order to ensure that the NBA players receive at least 53 percent of the league's revenues, teams will be required to spend a minimum of $10,120,000 on player salaries.

NBA Court Dimensions



NBA Playoff Structure

The following is the NBA playoff format and tie-breaking procedure for the 1991-92 NBA season:

1. Sixteen teams shall qualify for the playoffs. There shall be eight teams from each conference, consisting of the two division champions and the six other teams in each conference with the best winning percentage during the regular season.
2. The first round of the playoffs shall be a best-of-five series with all succeeding rounds, including the NBA World Championship Series, being best-of-seven.

Following are the playoff pairings:

Note: Team 1 in each conference is the division winner with the better record. Team 2 is the other division winner and Teams 3-8 are ranked according to their regular-season winning percentage.

Playoff Tie-Breaking Procedure

In order to break a two-team tie for playoff positions, the following criteria will be used:

a) Results of games against each other
b) Better winning percentage within own conference
c) Better winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division)
d) Better winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference
e) Point differential in games against each other
f) Better point differential between offense and defense

A multiple-team tie will be broken in the following manner:

a) Best cumulative winning percentage in total games involving all teams tied
b) Best winning percentage within own conference
c) Best winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division)
d) Best winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference
e) Best point differential between offense and defense

If a multiple-team tie is reduced to a two-team tie at any point using the above criteria, the two-team tie will be resolved in accordance with the existing two-team tie-breaking procedure.

How The Pacers Were Named

On Mar. 5, 1967, a group of Indianapolis businessmen purchased a franchise in the newly formed American Basketball Association. Indiana Professional Sports, Inc. was formed to own and operate the new franchise and on June 8, 1967, the team was named "Indiana Pacers" by General Manager Mike Storen.

The name was chosen because it would be a team for the entire state of Indiana and the organization intended to "set the pace" in professional basketball.
